THE VENUE A beautiful summer ceremony at Holy Name Cathedral transitioned into a traditional affair—with a few contemporary twists—in the Chicago Room of the Chicago History Museum. THE DETAILS Berghoff Catering passed chilled soup shooters and served roast chicken and beef tenderloin at the couple's "classic dinner party" reception coordinated by Lauren Knuepfer of LK Events. THE PARTY The 161 guests grooved to live music by Gentlemen of Leisure and munched on "chippers," chocolate-covered potato chips imported from Fargo, North Dakota, the groom's hometown. —K.B.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike and Devon Wiisanen. The bride looked like a princess in her gorgeous Enzoanni lace gown from Dimitra's Bridal.

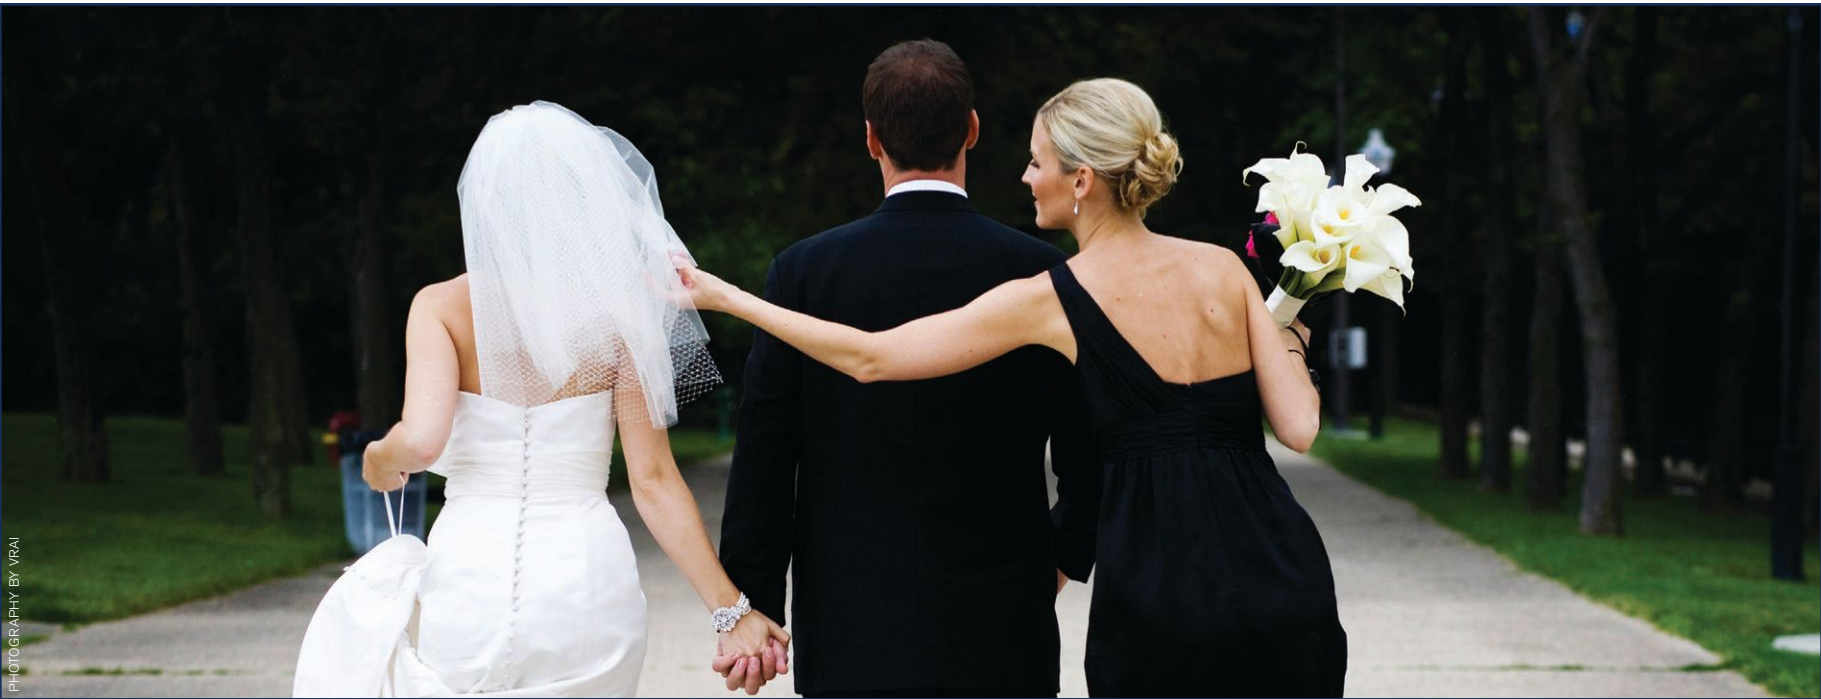

Berghoff pastry chef Chon Reynoso's artfully crafted layers of chocolate and yellow cake with vanilla crème brûlée filling.

The bride's bouquet included a locket bearing names of loved ones lost.
